At 1:32 the usual resolutions of thanks to officers of the convention, the city and the national committee were adopted. Convention has adjourned sine die.

PARKER'S TELEGRAM.

Hon. W. W. Sheehan, Hotel Jefferson, St. Louis, Mo.:

I regard the gold standard as finally and irrevocably established, and shall act accordingly if the action of the convention today shall be ratified by the people. As the platform is silent on the subject my views should be made known to the convention, and if it is unsatisfactory to the majority I request you to decline the nomination for me at once, that another may be nominated before adjournment.

ALTON B. PARKER.

THE ANSWER.

(The convention, after discussion, sent the following telegram in substance to the nominee):

"The platform is silent on the subject because it is not a possible issue in his campaign, and only campaign issues are mentioned. Therefore, nothing in the views expressed by you would preclude your standing

THE LIEBEL CASE SET FOR SATURDAY

Victim is Improving From His Injury.

Tom Jett's Picture Is to Adorn the Rogue's Gallery Very Soon.

POLICE COURT NEWS NOTES

Mr. Sam Liebel, who was shot Saturday by Skipper Jones, is getting along nicely and is not seriously injured. The case against Jones, who is out on bond, was today set for Saturday by Judge Sanders.

The police have not yet learned anything about Tom Jett, the negro arrested on suspicion Saturday after he had been seen prowling about the poor farm. This morning he was warrant issued for disorderly conduct and his photograph was taken to be sent to other places to ascertain if he is wanted.

There were few important cases in police court today.

REORGANIZATION OF COMMITTEE FAILED.

St. Louis, Mo., July 11.—Two meetings of the Democratic National Committee were held yesterday for the purpose of attempting to reorganize the committee, but it was finally decided that it would be disreputable to Judge Parker to do so without first consulting him. Some of the members insisted, and finally compromised by adopting a resolution of Senator Bailey indorsing Tom Taggart, of Indiana.

BRYAN MAY YET BOLT.
When asked after the debate on the reply to Judge Parker whether it was his intention to abandon the ticket, Mr. Bryan said:

"I have not yet considered that question sufficiently to reply, but I will make my position known in due time."

ALMOST A ROW.
St. Louis, Mo., July 11.—The seventh session of the Democratic National Convention, which was called to order at 8:37 o'clock Saturday afternoon, was expected to be the last, but it actually broke up in a row, which for a time threatened to undo all the work of the three days previous, and result in a split in the party. The trouble began early in the session, when it was whispered that former Lieutenant Governor W. F. Sheehan had a telegram from Judge Parker declining to run upon the gold standard plank, was inserted in the platform.

Colonel Ben Weller this morning found an empty bank such as are placed in stores and public places for contributions for the benefit of the Children's Home in Louisville. The bank had been opened and the money extracted and the bank then discarded. This is not the first time such a theft has been committed. It is not known where the bank came from.

If a thunderbolt had fallen among the delegates it could not have produced a more stunning effect. Senator Culbertson, of Texas, was the first to have the nerve to act. The other leaders fell in and a hasty adjournment until 8:30 was taken.

BITTERLY DENOUNCES PARKER.
Of the leaders who joined in denouncing Parker, Tillman of South Carolina, Governor Vardaman of Mississippi and Ollie James of Kentucky easily took the lead. Tillman shouted to Hill: "Why in h—l did not the d—d fool talk and let me know what his ideas were before we made fools of ourselves by nominating him?"

Tillman was heard to say: "Some one ought to move to revoke the nomination."

Hill made a quiet reply and Tillman shouted: "Then one candidate goes out on a platform that he has confessed he does not believe in. Who will burst this convention in pieces before we submit to one man dictating."

OLLIE JAMES FOR BRYAN.

Congressman Ollie James of Kentucky delivered an impromptu speech in the lobby of the Planters' hotel bitterly attacking Judge Alton B. Parker for repudiating the Democratic platform and clamoring for Bryan's leadership. The big 6-foot congressman declared that Bryan was stronger than ever before in his life, and rising to his full height, waving his hat above his bald head, he demanded that the banner again be placed in the hands of "old man Bryan."

A number of Kentucky delegates gathered about their congressman and loudly cheered every word that fell from his lips. "If Parker did not know the kind of platform that would probably be adopted," Mr. James continued, "he should have had sense enough to have informed himself through the public prints, and if he did not have sense enough to do that,

AND OTHER BUSINESS NOTES

The increase in bank clearings in Paducah last week of over $125,000 was due largely to money paid out for tobacco. The tobacco business in Paducah is now getting quite brisk, and a great deal of the weed is being sold.

In fact, the market is better than it has been known in a long time, and tobacco men have every assurance that it will continue to improve.

The Imperial company, which has bought a large quantity of the weed during the past several months, is now ready to begin pricing for shipment to England. The pricing begins this week, and will last some time. The factory was closed for several weeks the past spring on account of the new ruling in England, requiring an extra tax of six cents for stemmed tobacco.

The Mayfield market is reported good, and that at Fulton about as usual. The Fulton Commercial of Saturday said:

Fields Brothers prized their last hogshead of tobacco yesterday and closed out their contract with the Italian government. This enterprising firm have gotten the regular contract for the last two years.

Mr. Fields says the crop was of an inferior grade that they bought out a very small quantity this year. Now that they have closed out their contract it is the intention of Fields Brothers to handle a large purchase on their own account. Their buyers are already out examining the crops and before many days the tobacco will begin to pour into Fulton.

The offices of the Southern and Adams Express Companies in Paducah will be consolidated about August 1st, and the business will be transacted in the Southern office on South Third near Broadway. Mr. Brown, the Southern agent, will be in charge, and Mr. Norton, of the Adams company, will be transferred to some other place. The Southern was formerly the biggest company in this section, but when the Illinois Central got the C. O. & S. W. railroad the express privilege were given to the American, and since then the Southern has had only the N. C. & St. L. The Adams has had the river business, but some time ago abandoned the service between Paducah and Evansville, as it didn't pay. Its business failed to justify the expense of an agent and office, and the company decided to merge the two offices.

The funeral will take place tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock from the family residence and the burial will be at Oak Grove.

Mrs. Charles Dinpriest died last night in Mechanicsburg, of dropsy. She was 22 years of age. A husband, but no children survived her. A baby, a few weeks old, died several weeks ago.

Resignation to Take Effect November 1 and Is Announced As Final—No Future Plans.

OTHER ITEMS OF INTEREST

Rev. W. H. Pinkerton, of the First Christian church announced to his congregation yesterday that he would sever his connection with it as pastor, November 1, since that would complete the time he agreed to stay, when he offered his resignation some time ago.

Mr. Pinkerton has been pastor of the First Christian church of this city for eleven years, or it will be eleven years by November 1. He is one of the most popular ministers of Paducah, both with his own congregation and others, and his leaving will be a matter of universal regret.

Mr. Pinkerton gives as a reason for his determination to leave Paducah, that he feels that he is capable of doing better work in another field. He said to the Sun this morning that his decision was final, and the congregation will be left no choice but to accept the resignation. He has not yet made any definite plans for the future.

Rev. D. C. Wright, who has been called to the pastorate of Grace Episcopal church, preached morning and evening at this church yesterday. A meeting of the church vestry will be held this evening, and Mr. Wright will announce at this time whether or not he will accept the call to this church.

Rev. O. J. Cole, will begin a protracted meeting at Olivet Baptist church in this county, Sunday, July 24. He will be assisted by Rev. G. M. McNeilly, of Russellville.

WHY SETLEY WAS RELEASED.

Some of the papers over the circuit labor at the impression that Setley was released for the Henderson affair in which Land of Paducah made an attack on him. This is far from the real facts in the case. He was released for giving orders for borrowed cash and merchandise on the league, contrary to positive orders that were given him. The last time he did this was the occasion of a draft for $15 given to a Henderson gentleman and by means of a hard luck story succeeded in getting him to endorse it, thus securing the money. He was wired that a repetition of the offense would mean his instant dismissal. Even after this warning he secured merchandise from a Vincennes merchant giving an order on the league for the amount. That settled it—Setley was canned immediately. There were other charges, but no consideration was given them as they were not substantiated. Let Setley remain—he is out—don't rub it in.—Cairo Bulletin.

LIVELY TIMES

FOR MR. H. A. ROSE AND HIS AUTOMOBILE.

M. H. A. Rose, the well known lumber dealer, experienced strenuous times with his new automobile yesterday afternoon on Broadway.

About two o'clock Mr. Rose went to the Foreman Machine Company to get his machine geared up and when he went to ride off found something the matter with the gearing. Mr. Sam Foreman got in and turned on the power and immediately the big machine shot across the street and ran into the front doors of the New City Steam Laundry.

Both doors burst open and the machine shot half way across the office. Mr. Foreman finally stopped it. An examination showed that gone from the cylinder band.

At Fifth and Broadway a street car approached and thinking the motorman was not going to stop, Mr. Rose slowed up to let him pass.

Mr. Rose failed to stop off the power entirely and the car stopped. Mr. Rose struck the rear end of the car and the lamp was torn from the auto and a few dents made in the front of the machine but no serious damage was done.

HEAD STRUCK

BAD INJURY TO A COLORED BRAKEMAN.

W. H. Gilbert, a colored brakeman employed by the Illinois Central of Fulton, Ky., is in the local hospital suffering from a wound in the back of the head sustained Friday night while riding in an engine cab out of Fulton.

The negro had his head out of the cab and struck the coal chute. It is said. A deep gash was inflicted in the back of the head and Gilbert fell to the floor of the cab unconscious. He was brought to Paducah in this state and did not recover until this morning. He can not tell how the accident happened as he had his back turned to the obstruction which caused the injury. He suffers from a concussion but will recover.

A DELIGHTFUL PLACE TO SPEND THE SUMMER.

The I. C. Independents went to Metropolis yesterday and handily defeated the Metropolis team by a score of 13 to 1. Akers and Averitt were the battery for Paducah.

The Eden Hill Stars and the White Diamonds played a match game yesterday afternoon at the Star farm resulting in a victory for the former by a score of 4 to 2. Later the Stars played the Sterling and were defeated by a score of 6 to 4.

The Paducah L. A. L. team defeated the Dawson Springs team by a score of 12 to 3. The batteries were Dignard and Hays for Paducah.

Moore, Chambers and Goodlie for Dawson. Dignard struck out 11 men and Dawson only 5. Dignard's pitching and Decker's throwing were features of the game.

Chief Lloyd inspired and did good work, kicking being conspicuously absent. Wallace, shortstop for Dawson, who is said to be fast, did not show up very well and is clearly too slow for the Kitty league.

The Illinois Central Machinists and the Sons of Rest played a match game Saturday afternoon and the former were victorious by a score of 23 to 7.

Bluff, Mo. More money is said to have been the inducement.

Paducah has an off day Tuesday and will play Clarksville at Clarksville, instead of playing yesterday, Sunday, but not being played in Tennessee.

Secretary Farrell of the National Association, has wired for additional evidence in the Long case, and Secretary Farnham forwarded it at once. A decision is expected by Wednesday.

Clarksville comes to Paducah Wednesday for three games.

The uncertainty of baseball is demonstrated by Saturday's game at Henderson. Henderson made 10 hits and no errors, and Hopkinsville came along with 11 hits and five errors and won the game. It's all in bunching hits.

The fans talk about missing "Gilligan's head," but the absence of Gilligan's head doesn't account for 4 hits and 5 errors in a game.

Hopkinsville has been forced to release three players, Welsh, Hoeppl and Cotham because K. I. T. rules permit the carrying of only 11 men.

Had Cairo won yesterday the Egyptians would have gone to first place, having 655 points to Paducah's 654.

There is a rumor going around that there is a deal on with Cairo to trade Bohannon for Richards.—Cairo Bulletin.

Clarksville has sold Big Jeffries to Grand Rapids of the Central league.

Cairo has her eye on a pitcher that will handily strengthen the staff of slab artists and insure for a certainty that the pennant will land here again.—Cairo Bulletin. Why don't President Jackson get after some good men Cairo is after the pennant and will land it unless Paducah strengthens.

It is said that there is a deal on between Vincennes and Henderson to trade Bohanon, Wernecke and Copeland for Schmelzta.

Pitcher Waggoner, one of the Egyptian's best slab artists, has been released for base ingratitide. Cairo will have discipline if all of its star players have to go. Mr. Jackson might take a lesson.

"Happy Hooligan" Crangle, one of the Vincennes twirlers, has been released to go with the Birmingham, Ala., in Sonora League. It is said that he played indifferent ball for his release and got it.

AMATEUR GAMES.

The I. C. Independents went to Metropolis yesterday and handily defeated the Metropolis team by a score of 13 to 1. Akers and Averitt were the battery for Paducah.

The Eden Hill Stars and the White Diamonds played a match game yesterday afternoon at the Star farm resulting in a victory for the former by a score of 4 to 2. Later the Stars played the Sterling and were defeated by a score of 6 to 4.

The Paducah L. A. L. team defeated the Dawson Springs team by a score of 12 to 3. The batteries were Dignard and Hays for Paducah.

The Illinois Central Machinists and the Sons of Rest played a match game Saturday afternoon and the former were victorious by a score of 23 to 7.

HIS INDEFINITE SUSPENSION ORDERED ENFORCED.

Grover Land, Paducah's catcher, returned from Clarksville yesterday after having received notice that his suspension from notonal playing in the Kitty league was indefinite and he must not play any more until reinstated. Land came here to confer with President Jackson and last night went to Frankfort, his home, to remain until reinstated.

President Jackson thinks that he will have Land in the game again within the next few days.

Miss Bertha Dolbeer, who inherited over $5,000,000 at the death of her father, S. F. Dolbeer, of San Francisco, jumped from a ninth floor window in the Waldorf-Astoria hotel, New York, and was killed.

Meeting to be Held to Arrange for Big Shoot.

Match Shoot Between Locals Thursday—Illinois Game Law.

It is probable that a meeting of the Paducah Gun Club will be held tomorrow night to begin preparations for the state championship tournament to be held here by the Trap Shooters Association in September.

This will be the biggest state event of the year, and a large number of people are expected to attend. There will be no money shot for except that in the purses, every man shooting contributing $10 to the purse.

It is likely that a match shoot between Messrs. W. A. Davis and Ambrose Mercer and Mr. W. B. Kennedy and Dr. Hansbrough will take place at the Gun Club grounds Thursday afternoon to settle the championship.

Prof. John Dean, who is an enthusiastic hunter, has received a letter from the game commission of the state of Illinois stating that the game law has not been declared unconstitutional.

It had been reported in the Illinois papers that the supreme court of Illinois knocked out the law requiring a license from hunters, and Prof. Dean wrote to inquire. Whether or not that is what the Illinois officials have referred to is not known, as the game law may be constitutional and the license law clause in the game law requiring a license to hunt, be unconstitutional.

Local hunters are interested in the question, as many of them would hunt on the other side of the river if they did not have to pay a license.

MANY VISITORS

ABOUT 1000 PEOPLE CAME TO PADUCAH FROM ILLINOIS.

The Illinois Central yesterday ran an excursion to Paducah from Carbondale, Ill., and way stations. There were fully 1000 people in the crowd, and they were brought to Paducah from Brookport on the Steamer Dick Fowles.

The crowd was so large that the boat had to make two trips, the first delegation being handled at noon, and the other about an hour later. The visitors spent the afternoon walking and riding in the cars, and at the park, returning at 5:15. The crowd was orderly and there was no trouble of any description.

DEMOCRATIC NOMINEES

SKETCH OF A. B. PARKER.

Aiton Brooks Parker was born in Cortland, N. Y., May 14, 1852. From the public schools of his native town he passed to the Cortland academy and graduated from the Cortland normal school. Afterwards he entered the Albany law school, from which he graduated and was admitted to the bar in 1872. He commenced the practice of law in Kingston, and in 1877 became the surrogate of Ulster county, serving in that office until his election to the supreme court of New York in 1885. He was appointed a member of the court of appeals of New York in 1889, and chief justice of that court in 1898.

SKETCH OF H. G. DAVIS.

Henry Gassaway Davis, of West Virginia, nominated for vice president, completed in 1888 his second full term in the United States Senate. He was born in Howard county, Md., on November 16, 1823. After getting a village schools education he went to work on a farm and stuck to that until he was 20 years old.

Then he became a brakeman on the Baltimore and Ohio railroad. He was promoted to be a conductor and then a division agent, remaining in the railroad business as an employee fourteen years all together. In 1858 he secured an interest in a coal mine and in the Piedmont national bank, of which he is now president and which is now called the Davis national bank.

He was also until recently president of the West Virginia, Central and Pittsburgh railroad, which he projected, and of the Piedmont and Cumberland railroad. His first entrance into politics was in 1865, when he was elected to the Virginia house of delegates. He was a delegate from West Virginia to the Democratic National Conventions of 1868 and 1872, the first in New York city and the other in Baltimore. In 1868 he was elected to the state senate of West Virginia and was re-elected in 1870. In the same year he was elected United States senator from West Virginia to succeed W. T. Wile, Republican. He was re-elected in 1876 and declined a third term.

He was one of the delegates to the Pan-American congress and a member of the United States intercontinental railroad company. In 1888 Mr. Davis married Miss Kate A. Bantz, daughter of Judge Gideon Bantz, of Frederick, Md.

EXCELLENT MUSIC

PADUCAHANS ENJOY FREE CONCERTS—BOB ROBINSON COMING BACK.

Dean's Concert Band gave a delightful concert Saturday night at Second and Broadway and the attendance was the largest of the season.

Mr. H. Miller Connington and Mr. Bob Robinson were in the band and added much to the volume of the music. Mr. Robinson will leave for Sparta, Ill., his home, today but will probably return and locate here. He will make a valuable addition to the band.

Mr. Cunningham has a new march he recently composed and which was arranged by Herbert Clark, America's premier concertist. The march will probably be played next Saturday night.

Deal's Concert Band gave a concert at Wallace Park Saturday night and Sunday afternoon. The program was long and besides several heavy overtures and selections from Operas, many popular songs were played. The Deal concerts are a feature of afternoon entertainments at Wallace Park every Sunday.

Mayor Charles F. Granger announced in St. Louis that upon his return he would name James P. Edwards, a member of the board of public safety to succeed the late R. Lee Suter.

MUCH WORK BEGINS
AT THE I. C. SHOPS

Twenty Big Machines to Arrive will be Installed.

The Amount Spent Was $22,574—

Tin Shop to Be Built.

OTHER SHOP IMPROVEMENTS

This morning the first of the twenty big machines recently assigned to the Paducah machine shop, arrived and within the next few weeks other machines will follow and when all are installed, the Paducah shop will be able to put out work equal to Burnside's in Chicago. There are machines of all classes and sizes and the total money appropriated for these machines is $22,574.

It was announced last winter that the local shop would be enlarged and several new machines put in, but the number sent exceeded the expectations of local officials. This will mean the employment of more machinists, when the busy season comes on, but it is not expected all the machines will be in service before winter sets in.

Work on the new electrical transfer table in the local I. O. shop yards, will begin today and within the next month will be completed.

As previously stated the table will be shortened and will be made to bear the engine only, where at present the table will accommodate both engine and tender. By cutting off several feet at the south end, it will give room enough for a tank repairing shed which will subsequently be built.

It was stated Saturday that the tin shop would be built and that work on it would begin this week. The material will be gotten out immediately and the shop built as soon as possible. The present quarters of the tin workers are inadequate and badly located.

CONTRACT NOT LET

BUT THE LIBRARY BOARD DECIDES TO GIVE IT TO WANAMAKER.

The contract for furnishing books for the public library was not let Saturday, but will probably be awarded to John Wanamaker & Co., of Philadelphia, after a few changes are made in the list.

The library board held a meeting Saturday night and had four bids for the books, two from Chicago houses, one from a New York house, and one from Wanamaker. The latter's bid was considered the best, considering quality, and after the company is written relative to a few changes in the list, if these are satisfactory the contract will be signed up. The price to be paid for the 1800 books is about $1000.

The bids for the concrete was about the building were opened but the contract was not let. The board will hold another meeting Thursday night to set this question. About 500 books from the government were received Saturday, and the books to be purchased under the contract now under consideration will be here in about three weeks. The cataloguing will require sometime, and it is hardly likely that the library will be opened before September 1st, if then.

BILLY BRYAN BUNCOED.
David Bennett Hill was not satisfied with defeating William Jennings Bryan in everything in the recent Democratic convention, but had to rub it in. What Mr. Bryan will do about it remains to be seen. The way Colonel Bryan was "worked" shows that David Bennett has lost none of his old time adroitness. The Democratic leaders knew of the discord and differences that existed, and knew that whatever chance the Democrats had in the coming election, an open fight in the convention would not exhaust it. They knew that Colonel Bryan was a menace to an harmonious convention, and would not hesitate to precipitate the warmest kind of a fight on the floor. They knew that the ammunition was there all right, and all needed was somebody to touch it off. So they decided Mr. Bryan must be kept from applying the match.

In the committee meeting Mr. Bryan was allowed to "force" the financial plank from the platform. His friends called it a victory, and he was doubtless somewhat puffed up over it. But Hill and the other gold bugs were laughing in their sleeves. They kept out the plank to please and placate Bryan, and thus staved off what would have been an embarrassing if not disastrous fight on the floor of the convention. Thus was a semblance of harmony maintained. The platform committee made an unanimous report. Bryan had made them expunge the money plank and they had induced him to cut out his income idiocty, and while the platform did not endorse free silver, neither did it endorse sound money. But the convention did. Then came the opportunity of the sage of Coopers, N. Y. Judge Parker, The Silent, at the signal from Hill, opened his mouth and spoke. He had been nominated and he wanted it understood by the convention that he was unequivocally and irreversibly for sound money—for a gold standard—the thing the Republican party fought for and won.

He said he wanted that fully understood before the convention adjourned, so if it didn't suit they could nominate somebody else. Mr. Hill beard and doubtless chuckled softly to himself as he pictured the consternation of the Boy Orator of the Plate when he found out how badly he had been hoodwinked. The convention had refused to act on the money question, so the nominees of the convention compelled it to. Mr. Hill smiled again. He had the Bryan forces up a tree. The convention wouldn't endorse what Mr. Bryan and his crowd had stood for eight years, and yet it didn't dare defy them. The convention couldn't rescind its action nominating Judge Parker without becoming the laughing stock of the world, for it would mean a return to Bryanism as surely as the other. Judge Parker, the silent man, had spoken at the right time to help his friend Hill put Colonel Bryan down and out! Mr. Bryan was up a tree, the convention was up a tree. What did it do? It simply accepted the terms of surrender imposed by Judge Parker.

It endorsed what Judge Parker said about sound money, which is too plain to be misunderstood even by a Democrat, and in so doing endorsed the gold standard and virtually made it a part of the platform. In so doing it also repudiated Mr. Bryan. It endorsed and made a part of the Democratic platform the principle of sound money for which the Republican party has always stood and always will stand, and which the Democratic party bitterly fought during the two preceding national campaigns.

So after all, what did Colonel Bryan get out of this convention? A few "ovations," which are cheap. He was defeated in his effort to have the Harrison faction from Illinois seated, and he was defeated in his effort to get an income tax plank in the platform. He thought he had in return prevented the endorsement of sound money, and found at the last minute, after the Hill-Belmont-Oleander crowd had the convention in a position where it would be impossible to "back back" without stratifying the Democratic party, that the convention was destined to endorse sound money, whether it wanted to or not,—and it did.

Mr. Bryan was beautifully hoodwinked. They made a monkey out of him, and the question is, What is he going to do about it? He says he must have time to think.

It is mainly in a man to express his opinion before the convention adjourns, but it would have been more mainly had he expressed his opinion before the convention convened. This is what Bryan said Saturday night when the Hill faction played their trump card, catching Mr. Bryan ill and hardly able to he out. Judge Parker waited to express his sentiments on the money question until after the Democrats had nominated him. He hadn't the courage and manhood to do it before hand. He waited until the convention had nominated him and was nearly ready to adjourn, and then spoke. It left the already sorely tried Democracy, which had been striving for a week to keep down discord and strife and had done it at considerable sacrifice, between the devil and the deep blue sea. The party must surrender, or then and there fight out the battle. It had so sedulously tried to avoid, and it accepted the terms of the Hill-Belmont-Wall street crowd. How does the Democratic party like the way it was inveigled into the net of these arch tricksters from New York?

Acting Governor Thorpe made quite a record during the past week. He pardoned a few people, one on the strength of the "unwritten law," which was then recognized by the governor of the state for the first time, and a feminist who agreed to leave the state. He also told a funny story or two and by proclamation ordered the flag at Frankfort at half mast for a couple of days in honor of a departed friend.

One of the rate Democratic delegations at St. Louis was put out of the convention and as he went he yelled: "That's what we get for nominating a clam shell for the presidency, and after we get it we have to take a can opener to find out what's in it." It will take a search warrant to find the "clam shell" after the November election.

Here is the opinion of the Louisville Post, Democratic, of the Democratic platform: "The rest of the platform is utterly meaningless. The party itself is disintegrating.

seems to be a mere political derelict, adrift without a rudder, compass or pilot."

Mr. Bryan said in one of his speeches at the convention: "A man's duty to his country is greater than his duty to his party" but he didn't say that when the Palmer and Bockner men's duty to their country caused them to desert the Democratic party a few years ago.

The Democrats have been claiming that one man dominated the Republican national convention. How many dominated the Democratic? You can look long and intently into the proceedings and see nothing but the shadow of David B. Hill.

The gold bug wagon was big enough for the Kentucky delegation. They all had to pile into it, Blackburn, Woodson and all—even big Ollie Jeems.

Now that Judge Parker has recovered the power of speech, the country would like to know why the Standard Oil company and Wall street are so anxious for his election.

Probably Judge Parker's long silence was all in the Cleveland-Hill conspiracy to give Bryan his finishing touches.

COUNTY COURT

The Report Changing Voting Precincts Adopted.

Little Business at Today's Session—Important Case Tomorrow.

Judge R. T. Lightfoot this morning held a brief session of county court and transacted but little business.

The principal thing done was the filing of the report changing the boundaries of the voting precincts in McCraken county. The work of redistricting the county was left to a committee several weeks ago and the report has been in the hands of Attorney D. A. Cross for some time. The report, as previously published, was accepted in its entirety, no changes being made.

The suit of Frank Lucas, auditor's agent, against the Owens' Ferry Co., is set for tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock. This is a suit brought to compel payment of a franchise tax, and contrary to reports will not settle the question as to whether James Campbell, Jr., or Mr. Lucas is the legal auditor's agent, as the Owen suit was filed when Mr. Lucas' position was unquestioned.

The liquor license of Doerflinger on North Fourth has been transferred to Bnd Quarles and Kenny Murray.

Gip Linsbans, special commissioner, deems to J. F. Dowdy for $300, property in the county.

CHIEF ENGINEER WALLACE WAS HERE

Is Making a Tour of Inspection of the Road.

Superintendent of Telegraph Groce Was Also Here Looking Over the System Today.

OTHER RAILROAD NEWS ITEMS

PITCHES HERE WEDNESDAY

Mr. H. U. Wallace, chief engineer, and Mr. H. McCount, assistant general manager of southern lines of the Illinois Central, passed through the city yesterday at noon en route to Louisville from the south where Mr. Wallace has been on a tour of inspection.

Mr. Wallace looked over the work at Tennessee river where excavations for the new bridge are being made and will make a more minute inspection on his return if he comes back this way. He is also going to look over the work on the block system which is being installed between Paducah and Central City. It was stated by Roadmaster Thompson that all signal towers are about complete and today the work of putting in the wires began.

Mr. G. H. Groce, superintendent of telegraph of the I. C., passed through the city this morning at 8 o'clock en route to Louisville on business.

Mr. Groce traveled in his private car No. 6 and was accompanied by other telegraph officials who will look over the work on the block system of the Paducah district.

They will also look after the work of putting in the heavier wire on the main line telegraph and telephone system, which has in a measure proven a failure between Chicago and New Orleans.

Mr. J. E. McIlwaine, the popular I. O. dispatcher, returned Saturday from Abbeville, S. C., where he had been attending the bedside of his father who is now much better.

The many friends of Mr. John Lane, the popular railroad contractor, will be pleased to learn that he has again become an employee of the I. O., having accepted a position today to superintend the installation of new steel tracks over Iron Ore Hill, a few miles north of Paducah on the Louisville division of the I. C. Mr. Lane was formerly supervisor of local terminals and was foreman of the gangs which built the Cairo extension of the road.

After the Cairo extension was built Mr. Lane went to the Gulf and Ship Island road and remained south a year.

Since his residence here Mr. Lane has done general contracting.

He is getting ready his cars and men and will begin work on the job on Wednesday.

It will require two months to complete the job.

While Mr. Lane will remain to the employee of the I. O., he will not give up his contracting.

Mr. Lane and Mr. Jeff J. Read have practically been awarded the contract by the promoters of the Cairo and Paducah electric road if built.

Both of Nashville's catchers were crippled and I had to pitch to Bennett, a second baseman. Bennett did not claim to be a catcher, and he would leap after my underhand ball like a frog going into the water.

Nearly every time I struck out a man Bennett dropped the ball.

In the second game he was principally responsible for the three runs made in the first inning, but even at that some of the best pitchers in the Southern league have fared worse than I did in one inning.

Fisher has several twirlers "farmed out" to the Cotton States league and the South Atlantic league.

In the past few days two or three are on a par.

The Southern league players regard the Kitty as fast company and they watch the papers closely for results.

Freeman will remain in Paducah until the team returns from its present tour, which will be Wednesday.

He will twirl the first game, which will be against Clarksville.

Mrs. F. E. LACK'S FATHER DIES

Colonel V. B. Sevier, aged 67, father of Mr. James Sevier and Mrs.

F. E. Lack of Paducah, died at his home in Jackson, Tenn., from a complication of diseases after a several weeks' illness.

His children were called to his bedside several days before the end came.

He was one of the best known residents of Jackson and had many friends throughout the south.

Colonel Sevier was transfer-clerk in the railway mail service at Jackson, and was one of the veterans of the service, having worn its uniform for over a quarter of a century.

Postman Charles Holliday has gone to Ballard county to spend his vacation.

He is clear as crystal and pure as sparkling spring water, because it's made right and bottled right.

It's good to the last drop.

Order a case today and be happy.

I suffered from continuous nervous twitches, insomnia, restlessness, miserable nights, nerves all gone. Craving for coffee was intense but it put me lower and lower in health. Something must be done, so I tried leaving off the coffee and using Postum Food Coffee. The first trial wife and I were diagnosed for we were careless in brewing it, but we went carefully into the subject of preparing Postum and found we had only allowed it to brew about five minutes, and that won't make good Postum. So next time it was boiled full 15 minutes after boiling began, then served with good cream and it was toothsome and delicious. That marked the beginning of my return to health. Now I sleep well, the old twitches have disappeared, and in short I am well again. My good wife has also been much benefited by leaving off coffee and using Postum Food Coffee. We have abandoned the old coffee for all time." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.

DIED OF WOUNDS

Enos Collins Fatally Shot at Barbecue.

Wanted to Fire His Pistol When the Manager Engraved Shotgun Into Him.

Enos Collins, an alleged "bad man" of Marshall county, was shot and fatally injured Saturday afternoon by Ed Jones at a barbecue near Olive, Marshall county.

It seems Jones was manager of the barbecue, and Collins was there feeling in a pugnacious mood. He wanted to shoot a pistol into the crowd for fun, it is said, and Jones objected.

A fight ensued in which Collins attempted to use his pistol and Jones fired the contents of a shot gun into Collins' stomach.

The injured man died late yesterday afternoon. He is the man who killed Will Hampton at Hamlet, five years ago.

Jones is under arrest.

"Let me see," mused Joe. "Six sticks for 5 cents, five sticks for 4 cents, four sticks for 3 cents, three sticks for 2 cents, two sticks for 1 cent, one stick for nothing." Glumme one stick, please."

The Blazed Trail

By STEWART EDWARD WHITE

Copyright, 1902, by Stewart Edward White

In the men's camp the crew lounged, smoked, danced or played cards. In those days no one thought of fording gambling. One evening Thorpe who had been too busy to remember Phil's violin, strolled over and looked through the window. A dance was in progress. The men were waltzing, whirling solemnly round and round, gripping firmly each other's loose sleeves just above the elbow. At every third step of the waltz they stamped one foot.

Perched on a cracker box sat Phil. His head was thrust forward almost aggressively over his instrument and his eyes glared at the dancing men with the cold wolflike gleam. As he played he drew the bow across with a swift jerk, thrust it back with another, threw his shoulders from one side to the other in abrupt time to the music. And the music! Thorpe unconsciously shuddered, then sighed in pity. It was atrocious! It was not even in tune. The performer seemed to grind it out with a fierce delight, in which appeared little of the aesthetic pleasure of the artist. Thorpe was at a loss to define it.

"Poor Phil!" he said to himself. "He has the musical soul without even the musical ear."

Next day, while passing out of the cook camp, he addressed one of the men.

"Well, Hilly," he inquired, "how do you like your fiddler?"

"All right," replied Hilly, with emphasis. "He's got some go to her."

The work proceeded briefly, and yet the young lumberman had sense enough to know that while a crew such as this is supremely effective it requires careful handling to keep it good humored and willing. He knew every man by his first name and each day made it a point to talk with him for a moment or so. The subject was invariably some phase of the work. Thorpe never permitted himself the familiarity of introducing any other topic.

He never replied directly to an objection or a request, but waited to it non-committally and later, without explanation or reasoning, acted as his judgment dictated. Even Shearer, with whom he was in most intimate contact, respected this trait in him. Gradually he came to feel that he was making a way with his men. It was a status not assured as yet nor ever very firm, but a status for all that.

Then one day one of the best men, a teapaster, came in to make some objection to the cooking. As a matter of fact, the cooking was perfectly good, but the lumber Jack is a great hand to growl, and he usually begins with his food.

Thorpe listened to his vague objections in silence.

"All right," he remarked simply. Next day he touched the man on the shoulder just as he was starting to work.

"Step into the office and get your time," said he.

"What's the matter?" asked the man. "I don't need you any longer."

The two entered the little office. Thorpe looked through the ledger and van hook and finally handed the man his slip.

"I'll have no growers in this camp," said Thorpe, with decision.

"By thunder," cried the man, "you—"

"You get out of here!" cried Thorpe, with a concentrated blast of energetic passion that made the fellow step back.

"I ain't goin' to get on the wrong side of the law by foolin' with this office," cried the other at the door, "but if I had you outside for a minute—"

"Leave this office!" shouted Thorpe. "Suppose you make me!" challenged the man insolently.

In a moment the defiance had come, endangering the careful structure Thorpe had reared with such pains. The young man was suddenly angry in exactly the same blind, unreasoning manner as when he had leaped single handed to tackle Dyer's crew.

Without a word he sprang across the slack, seized a two-bladed ox from the pile behind the door, swung it around his head and cast it full at the now frightened teapaster. The latter dodged, and the swirling steel buried itself in the snow bank beyond. Without instant's hesitation Thorpe reached back for another. The man took to his heels.

"I don't want to see you around here again!" shouted Thorpe after him.

Then in a moment he returned to the office and sat down, overcome with contrition.

"It might have been murder," he told himself, awe stricken.

But, as it happened, nothing could have turned out better.

Thorpe had instinctively seized the only method by which these strong men could be impressed. Now the entire crew looked with vast admiration on their boss as a man who intended to have his own way no matter what difficulties or consequences might tend to delay him. And that is the kind of man they liked.

Indian Charley, silent and enigmatical as ever, had constructed a log shack near a little creek in the hard wood. There he attended diligently to the business of trapping. Thorpe rarely found time to visit him, but he often glibbed into the office, smoked a pipe,

Tommy Visualizes His Idea of an Old Favorite.

IN a certain school out west means and methods of education are used which to the unenlightened mind appear little less than startling.

For instance, the children sing a song. Then each of them makes a drawing which is supposed to illustrate the song which has just been sung. In this way the power of the pupils to "visualize their conceptions" is fostered.

The other day the music of "The Old Oakie Huckle" was started, and everybody joined in the singing. Then they all sat down to make a picture of what the song meant to them.

Tommy, one of the youngest of the class, turned in a truly original sketch. He had drawn what might have been meant for a circle and within it had outlined what appeared to be three wastebaskets all in a row. Underneath this diagram was a sprinkling of microbes as they appear under a magnifying glass?

The teacher looked at the drawing and then admitted that she was puzzled.

She put her forefinger on the left hand figure in the row of three inside the circle and said, "Tommy, what is that?"

"Why, teacher, that's the old oaken bucket."

The teacher pointed out the right hand figure of the three.

"And that, Tommy?" she asked.

"Pshaw! That's the iron bound bucket."

The teacher pointed to the circle which inclosed the three buckets.

"What's that?"

"That's the well they hung in."

"And what are these?" she asked finally, pointing to the ragged group of exaggeratedly speckled below the rest of the picture.

"Those," answered Tommy, with never the ghost of a smile in his big blue eyes—"those are all the loved spots which my infancy knew."—Chicago Tribune.

A Test.

The telephone bell in an uptown residence rang a few evenings ago, and a young woman who was expecting a call rushed to answer it, being sure that one of her admirers had called her up.

"Is this—?" demanded a voice, repeating the number of the phone in question.

"Yes," replied the girl.

"Well," continued the voice, "we are testing the wire. Will you please draw a long breath and say very plainly, 'I will be good?'"

She obeyed. "I will be good," she said.

"A little slower and a little more distinctly now, please."

"I—will—he—good," said the young woman, trying her best.

"No. That's not right at all," corrected the voice. "We must fix that, I guess. Now make one extra effort and say it again."

The girl caught her breath. "I will be good," she shouted.

"You will, will you?" laughed the voice. "Well, I'm glad to hear you say so. You were decidedly unpleasant the last time I called."

And just then the man at the other end of the wire "rang off."

Now the young woman is trying to discover just which of her admirers played such a detestable joke on her.—Philadelphia Press.

Man of Excellent Taste.

Burrell—Did you ever notice when a woman comes into the car and there is no seat wholly vacant she invariably takes a seat beside some other woman?

Dixon—Well, why shouldn't she? It's the most natural thing in the world. That's what I always do myself—in fact, I do it when there are plenty of whole seats vacant.—Boston Transcript.

A Ballad of the Pike.

YOU kin have yer marble buildings and yer stations set apart, Yer places of industry and galleries of art. Yer land is white And yer farrin' exhibitions, fer I reckon they're all right, But I'm lookin' for my money's worth, so when I hit the Pike.

I want to see the zoos, And the pantries too, I want to look at everyt'ing I like, I've heard of the Palais.

And the Cairo girls that dance— Say, I wonder if they'll have 'em on the Pike?

I want to see the farrin' cities all along the track,

I want to go through Paris to Jerusalem and back, I'd like to see the hull of it—I think I'd just go as moon.

Take the submarine to hades and the air, I don't care, I'm to the moon, I don't care, when I hit the Pike.

I want to make a strike, it's a strike, it's a strike, when I make it along the Pike.

I must be kind of phoney, Like an edicated Coney,

Or a solid mile o' Barnum, if ye like, And I just tell you, by Jingo, I've shopped that I kin go.

For a week or so to rubber on the Pike,

I'd like to see the Zuns an' the Kunts an' the Japs.

The mulkie' on' the Moslems an' the Romaians an' Lappies,

I don't much care about the names they have, but I must say,

I'll take right smart instructive jet to see 'em anyway.

What's the use to cross the ocean en' fer weeks or months to hike

When the world is twenty minutes can be saw along the Pike?

You kin reach the polar clime

For a quarter, while a dime

Takes you plumb to the equator, if ye like.

You can travel clean to Mars

An' a ways beyond the stars

For a dollar thirty-seven on the Pike.

I want to see the Flyin' Hivis' on the plain,

An' the downin' of creation an' the alask-

in' in the Maliboo.

And other great inventions, like the Chineses an' the Turks,

An' the men from France an' Birme-

n-a-carryin' their dirks,

The cityful o' old-shadows—there's the kind of thing I like.

I reckon I'll go busted when I travel down the Pike?

You kin reach the polar clime

For a quarter, while a dime

Takes you plumb to the equator, if ye like.

You can travel clean to Mars

An' a ways beyond the stars

For a dollar thirty-seven on the Pike.

I spend no golden gravel

Or you dinky farrin' travel

Or barges and excursions on the Pike,

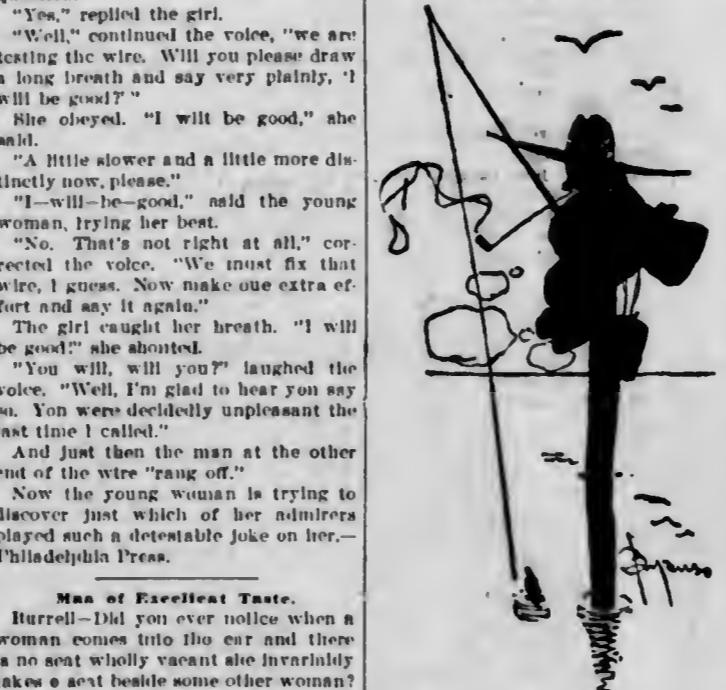

But if you like, there is little wearin'

When I'll be just disappearin'—

And I reckon you can find me on the Pike.

Wallace Irwin in Collier's Weekly.

Where Will He Go!

The Fisherman—By George, if Bill Jones don't come around with that boat pretty soon I won't wait for him.—Chicago American.

Grandfather's Good Service.

"You," said the indolent youth, "we have decided that grandfather is entitled to some consideration."

"Ittenly?"

"Oh, yes. Of course we can't afford to say much about him because he was in trade, but we have given a lot of thought to the matter, and we can see extenuating circumstances."

"Perhaps he couldn't help it."

"We considered that, but it's not the main thing."

"He left you a big fortune."

"Oh, yes; but that is of trifling importance, except as it is associated with the one really great boon."

"Which is?"

"Why, if he hadn't been in trade we would be, don't you know. He saved us that humiliation!"—Chicago Post.
